

SISAQOL™

Setting International Standards in
Analysing Patient-Reported Outcomes
and Quality of Life Endpoints

Pilot in-person training,
September 2026,
Zagreb (Croatia)

Terms and Conditions

Participants registered to the SISAQOL pilot in-person training 2026

Scope

These terms & conditions apply to all individually registered attendees (hereafter “Participant(s)”) attending the SISAQOL pilot in-person training (hereafter “SISAQOL in-person training”), to be held face-to-face from 22-23 September 2026.

All dates or deadlines, mentioned in these terms & conditions and other SISAQOL in-person training documents, are on Central European Time (CET). The organisers are EORTC and the EORTC Quality of Life Group (hereafter the “Organisers”).

Eligibility

Individuals must be at least 18 years old to register for the SISAQOL in-person training. Participants may be asked to present an official identity card mentioning their date of birth (e.g. passport, driving licence etc.).

The SISAQOL in-person training is directed at trialists, including statisticians, clinical outcomes researchers, clinicians, and health economists primarily. Participation in the 2026 SISAQOL in-person training will be exclusively available to SISAQOL member organisations.

Only duly registered Participants will have access to the SISAQOL in-person training. Members of the public and children are not allowed access.

Registration

Only fully completed online applications submitted by 15 May 2026 will be reviewed. The successful candidates will be informed by email by 19 June 2026. Confirmation from the successful candidates need to be provided to the Organisers by 15 July 2026. If the successful candidate fails to confirm their participation by 15 July 2026, the Participant’s place will be withdrawn and provided to the next applicant on the waiting list.

Registration is free of charge; it includes:

Access to all SISAQOL in-person training sessions on both days, as well as the refreshment breaks on both days and lunch break on the first day. SISAQOL in-person training materials will be sent before the event; some materials will be distributed onsite.

Individual Registration replacement

Replacement of existing registrations is not allowed. Participants who are not able to attend the SISAQOL in-person training must inform the Organisers by email by 7 September 2026 at QOL.events@eortc.org, so that their place can be provided to the next applicant on the waiting list.

Cancellation

All cancellation requests must be made in writing (email only) and sent to QOL.events@eortc.org by 7 September 2026. Cancellations received after 7 September 2026, as well as no-shows on the day of the event, may make participants ineligible to register for the next SISAQOL in-person training.

Letter of Invitation

Individuals requiring an official letter of invitation from the Organisers can request one by sending an email to 1 to QOL.events@eortc.org. The letter of invitation does not financially obligate the Organisers in any way. All expenses incurred in relation to the SISAQOL in-person training are the sole responsibility of the Participant.

CME credits/Certificate of attendance

Only registered Participants who have attended the SISAQOL in-person training sessions will be issued CME credits/Certificate of Attendance.

SISAQOL™

Setting International Standards in
Analysing Patient-Reported Outcomes
and Quality of Life Endpoints

Pilot in-person training,
September 2026,
Zagreb (Croatia)

Data protection and sharing of contact details

This event is organised by EORTC in collaboration with the EORTC Quality of Life Group.

To manage Participant's registration and participation to this event, the Organisers collect and store Participant's personal data in order to promote and evaluate the event, and to produce statistics on participation to the events. Other personal information might be required in scope of organisation of travel and accommodation.

Your personal data may be collected through forms we ask you to complete, or through the website of the Organisers or their partners and subcontractors. This can create opportunities that undertakings that have nothing to do with the Organisers might use for phishing emails purposes; please be careful not to provide your personal data to these undertakings or in case of doubts, please do not hesitate to verify the validity of the request with the EORTC.

Our legal basis for the processing of the Participant's data is contract execution (Participant's registration to our event, organisation of the travel and accommodation, travel award submission processing), legal compliance (e.g. accountancy) and legitimate interest (statistics of participation, evaluation of the event and event promotion). Please note that when processing is based on legitimate interest, you will still be able to exercise the right to object.

Participant's name, specialty when relevant, organisation and country will appear on the event badges. The processing of personal data collected falls under the EU General Data Protection Regulation 679/2016 (hereafter also "GDPR", applicable as of 25/05/2018) and the Belgian Law of 30 July 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data.

Participant's data will be stored for a maximum of 10 years after the end of the event. After this period, EORTC will either anonymise or delete Participant's personal information.

Please also read carefully the EORTC Privacy Policy to find out more about privacy and your data subject rights. If Participants register for this event, and if consented (optional), EORTC may contact Participants occasionally to inform them about other EORTC events that may be of interest or provide them with more information about EORTC activities or other relevant information relative to cancer research, for example in the form of a newsletter. If Participants do not wish to receive information from EORTC in the future, and want to be removed from EORTC's mailing list, they can unsubscribe from the mailing list, or write at any time to QOL.events@eortc.org.

This event may include a photographer, and may be recorded for promotional purposes only. These photos/recordings may be used in official EORTC press releases, printed and/or online publicity and published on any EORTC social media network, such as Facebook, Twitter (X), YouTube or LinkedIn. EORTC will delete them after they are no longer needed for publicity purposes. To be removed from any EORTC online or offline publication please contact QOL.events@eortc.org.

Modification of the programme

The Organisers reserve the right to modify the programme at any time. All mention of the programme is only indicative and is subject to change.

Cancellation, Liability and Damage

The Organisers reserve the right to alter or cancel any Participant registration due to circumstances beyond its/their control, including but not limited to industrial action, postal communications, flooding, storm, lack of utilities, fire alarm evacuation, or any act of God (hereafter "Force Majeure"). If this happens, the Organisers will use all commercially reasonable efforts to offer the Participant alternative services.

SISAQOLTM

Setting International Standards in
Analysing Patient-Reported Outcomes
and Quality of Life Endpoints

Pilot in-person training,
September 2026,
Zagreb (Croatia)

In the event of postponement or cancellation of the SISAQOL in-person training due to Force Majeure or to events which are not attributable to wrongful intent or gross negligence of the Organisers, the latter cannot be held liable by Participants for any damages, costs, or financial losses and any other miscellaneous expenses directly or indirectly resulting from such postponement or cancellation.

The Organisers cannot be held responsible for any personal injury, loss, damage or accident to private property, or for additional expenses incurred as a result of delays or changes in air, rail, road travel or other services, or resulting from strikes, illness, weather and other similar causes, neither for any indirect damage resulting thereof.

In any event, the Organisers cannot be held liable for any claims resulting from, or arising out of:

- i) failure to provide any of the services contracted due to Force Majeure;
- ii) accident, injury or damage to the Participants or their respective property due to their own actions, neglect or actions of others.
- iii) any indirect damage.

The Participant should make sure that they are fully insured against all losses or liabilities referred to in this section "Liability and Damage".

The Organisers reserve the right to refuse any registration if the Participant cannot provide proof that he/she has sufficient insurance to cover his/her liability under this section.

The Participant shall be responsible for any damage, cost or loss caused by the act, default or negligence of the Participant or his/her guest(s). He/she will defend and indemnify the Organisers from and against any claim resulting from, or arising out of, any such damage, cost or loss and will pay on demand the amount required to remedy any such damage.

The Participant must ensure that he/she or his/her guest(s) and anyone visiting them at the SISAQOL in-person training behave in such a way that they do not cause a nuisance or unreasonable disruption of the SISAQOL in-person training, other Participants, the Organisers or any other visitor of the venue.